

Maiden Voyage
music by Herbie Hancock words by Mike Barrett

this time next time
this line next line
this chime next chime
this mind mines rhyme

this sine co-sine
this sin this crime
window sunshine
this note sublime

this prime next prime surf church sand shrine

wave form
dithyrambic noise
sun shorn
dithyrambic noise
careworn
dithyrambic noise
starborn
dithyrambic noise

vision
dithyrambic noise
mission
dithyrambic noise
risen
dithyrambic noise
listen
dithyrambic noise

long road
weight load
strong code
song mode

during solos

What more am I
than on a wave
between earth and sky?

Blue is a note
blue is the ocean
blue is the color
this cresting emotion

It takes the sea
it takes the air
and it takes your courage for every moment that you launch is your Maiden Voyage
