

So What
music by Miles Davis words by Mike Barrett

I could craft you a cosmos	where time is begotten make a world with you in	the all the everything mind	that never is forgotten It'll be how you like it	He said: so what/so plus two of every kind	white/so what miles to go before I sleep
I can fix your future	miles and miles
I can fix your fate	on a coal train turn your trust into a	miles to go before I sleep goldmine	on a coal train make you the head of every state
	story
you ask me how I'll do this	unloads it's an esoteric art	starless lend me some of your soul	dark roads I'll teach you immortal parts	a word
	a voice
He said: so what/so	a scheme white/so what/so what	a choice then he played broken
I'm the real McCoy believe	moonlight me	hear it
You know I am sincere	in sight how could I be lying you see me standing here	accuse a test
I can smite your foes	music you get access to my crew	defense I can take stormy weather and make the sky kind of blue
I know the one who knows
